

Terms and Conditions

These Terms and Conditions explain how UZB BUSINESS SOLUTIONS - FZCO provides consulting and related professional services through direct business engagements. They describe how a potential engagement begins but do not replace the separate agreement signed with a client.

A tailored engagement

Our services are not purchased merely by visiting the website or submitting an enquiry. Before work starts, we discuss the proposed assignment and confirm whether we are able to accept it. Any proposal or preliminary discussion remains subject to contract unless expressly stated otherwise in writing.

What the client agreement covers

Each engagement is subject to a separate written agreement. Depending on the project, the agreement may cover:

- the scope of services and responsibilities of each party;
- fees, invoicing and payment terms;
- ownership and use of the work results;
- confidentiality and data protection;
- support, changes and termination;
- liability; and
- governing law and dispute resolution.

If there is any conflict between this page and the signed agreement, the signed agreement shall prevail. The information on this website is provided for general purposes only and does not create any contractual, employment, partnership or agency relationship.

Starting a conversation

To discuss a project or request a tailored proposal, contact us using the contact form available on our website. Please avoid sending confidential information until we confirm an appropriate channel and agree how the information will be handled.
